Professor G. Peano,
Universitate de Torino,
"Academia Pro Interlingua",
Cavoretto (Turin),
Italy.

Dear Professor Peano:

I have been informed by an Italian journalist Mr. Silvio E. Corio, London, about "Interlingua", which he says is understood by all educated Europeans without special study or tuition. Mr. Corio wrote to us about the matter in connection with the fact that in our international student magazine "Vox Studentium" we make use of the three languages English, French and German.

I should be grateful to have some information about the possibilities and the use of "Interlingua".

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours sincerely,

Donald Grant
