

THE RO LANGUAGE SOCIETY R. 12. XII. 1920.

Sustaining Membership, $1.00 a year
Ro-English Dictionary 50c

Waverly, West Virginia, U.S.A.

Nov 16 1920

Prof G Peano, praesidente
Cavoretto-Torino

Estimato Socio:

Me retromitte uno exemplare de vestro circolare, cum meo
novo addressa(habitatione). Me gaudeo ut Academia continua labores.

In reference to the membership fee, I make this proposition. I am willing to mail to the Academy eight of my Dictionary of Ro (at 25¢ each, less than wholesale price) if the Academy will accept them in payment of my membership fee. I still owe the printer some $83 on them, and do not have the money necessary to pay for them. I have now given more than sixteen years of hard work, without any salary, and without any great amount of sympathy to the construction of an a-priori language, and money is hard to get, but if the Academy will accept eight of the Ro Dictionaries in payment of the fee, I will gladly send them.

It would be a favor that I should appreciate also, if you can conveniently send me the name of some Italian publishers, or of one who might consider printing a Ro-Italian Dictionary for me, that is, by translating the English words into Italian.

Best wishes for the prosperity of the Academy

Cordially yours,

Edward P. Foster